COLLEGE MEN IN BIG TORCHLIGHT PARADE

Progressive Club to Have Many Members in Demonstration Saturday Night.

Next Saturday evening a demonstration and torchlight parade will be participated in by all people interested in the Progressive Party. The college contingent will include hundreds of undergraduates of Tech, Amberst, Harvard, Massachusetts Agricultural College, the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and it will meet at 7.30 sharp in Copley Square. The various clubs will supply all flags, signs and transparents free, the only expense being for torches, which will be accompanied by tea brass bands. The Progressive Party of Boston has secured the Boston Common for that night, and the parade, after forming, will proceed to this place, where the members of the State ticket will speak, and also many men of national prominence. After the speeches, a monitor demonstration in behalf of the Progressive Party will take place. The Progressive Club of M. I. T. desires that every man interested in the movement turn out. It is also requested that those who intend to participate in the parade write the names of Sandberg, 13, chairman of the Committee on Parade.

Glee Club Has Trials.

About Thirty Men Out But More Basses and Tenors Needed.

About thirty-five men turned out for the Glee Club trials at the Union yesterday afternoon. Among those who tried out, only about half were of a high enough caliber to make the club, so the officers say that they wish to see double that number out at the next rehearsal, which will be held 9 o'clock from today, November 7. Any new men who apply at this time will be given a chance to show what they can do. The club will have as coach Professor Walker. His subject was the study of educational work of the department of the interior. He gave a talk of vital interest to Tech men on the subject of the importance of being able to manage men, to understand them, and so get the most out of them, and minimizing the danger of trouble with them. He said that knowledge, a large per cent. of the labor troubles of the country are brought on by misunderstanding. Agreements of this, he emphasized the importance of keeping in touch with what men are thinking of in the line of social legislation and social service.

The toastmaster then introduced Professor Walker. His subject was the things Tech men have to be happy. He mentioned the new all, the very prosperous condition of the institute and of the increased opportunities in the country generally. (Continued on Page 3.)
