Uniforms.
The agent for Jacob Reeds' Sons, who have the contract for making the drill uniforms for the battalion, will be at the Armoury from 3 to 4 o'clock, Wednesday, November 6th.

At that time all uniforms which have been returned in to the class for repair or alteration will be delivered to those who are able to make payment at that time.

At the same time they will receive any other second-hand uniforms which are in need of alteration. It will also be possible to have every old pattern remodeled after the new style.

All officers, non-commissioned officers or privates not having ordered all parts of the required uniform do so at this time as it will be their last chance.
