SOUTH WESTERN

The Technology Southern Club will hold its first dance of the season toight at the Hotel Clinton, Boylston and Hemenway streets. It is expected that about twenty-five couples will attend and enjoy the dancing.

The matrons will be Mrs. Alfred Burton, wife of our popular Dean; Mrs.

C. M. Spooner, wife of Professor Spool-ford, instructor in civil engineering; and Mrs. G. H. Runner, the mother of the president of the club.

As a penalty for flunking, students at the University of Colorado are compelled to wear small blue caps with green buttons.
