KOMMER'S DINNER TO COME SATURDAY NIGHT

Members of Former Shows to Be There in Costume—Choice of Book Also Announced.

Preparations for the Krommer's dinner to be held in the Union dining room on Saturday night of this week are along rapidly, and present indications point to a record crowd and a late time over blown at the Krommer dinner. Several members of the Institute would be on the Board of Directors. All Admissions of the show will be presented to agents, and a number of other show men will be in attendance to lend the occasion a touch of the reality of the show.

At the time of General Manager W. E. White's recent trip to New York, Coach Ringer signified his intention of being present at the dinner and speaking to the men concerning the vice-presidency, R. R. Lesmond, P. C. I. of the show, and a number of other show men will be present and contribute to the enjoyment of the occasion.

FRESHMAN BALLOT COMMITTEE MEETS

List of Nominations Pitted Out to Required Number at Meeting Yesterday Noon.

The Ballot Committee of the Class of 1913 met in Rogers yesterday noon and looked over the nominations which were handed in last Saturday. It was found that there were not sufficient nominations so that the list must be completed by the committee in charge of the ballots. This was done as prescribed by the constitution, which says that there must be at least three men nominated for each office, and in case there are not, the list must be completed by the committee in charge of the ballots.

The men who were nominated for the presidency are T. C. Gustling, W. W. Tappan, N. H. Wilson, E. L. Kendall, E. E. Reed, and W. A. Adams; for the office of vice-president, R. B. Loveland, C. S. Norwood, and A. L. Pick; for the leslure committee, Allen E. H. Jr., and Charles B. P. Champlin; for the executive committee, George H. White, J. H. Murdough and R. T. G. White. It has been definitely decided to let the Freshmen this year as a preliminary tryout, candidates for the Executive Committee. J. C. White.
