COSMOPOLITAN CLUB PREPARES FOR DANCE

To Take Place in Hotel Toularies

—Dance Orders Out Early This Week.

Arrangements are being made by the Committee of the Cosmopolitan Club for its annual dance, which will take place this year on the last evening of November at the Hotel Toularies.

Invitations have been sent to many famous foreigners, but the committee announces that no invitations will be sent to foreigners who are not students at the Institute, but through the student and their respective National Associations all are hereby requested to be present. Those who wish to have invitations sent to their lady friends should apply to the National Committees, which will be at the Institute, and their respective National Associations will be at the Institute. The reception will be open to all students.

The price of the tickets is $2.50 each, and they may be obtained from any member of the committee, which is composed of the following: A. B. Ramsey, H. D. Fisch, L. H. Lehander, C. D. Taylor, E. Hart, and the President of the Institute.

The dance orders, which will be out this week, may also be obtained from any member of the committee. Every effort is being made to make the affair a great success, and the committee expect to surpass all previous ones in decorations, novel features, refreshments, music and attendance. There will be many surprises in store for the Institute, and the entertainment will be provided by the entertainers who do not dance, and through every person attending is assured of an excellent evening.

RELIGION OF TECH MEN.

Congregationalists in Majority, Say T. C. A. Statistics.

The statistics of the religious polities at the beginning of the year under the auspices of the T. C. A. have been made available to the Association. They indicate that any new men who wish to enter the church are not to be refused. They should be received at once and be given every encouragement to attend the religious services of the church.
