THE TECH, BOSTON, WED. DECEMBER 9, 1912

C. T. QUESTHIN ELECTED FRESHMAN PRESIDENT

Bickford Vice-President, Shakespeare Treasurer, Adams Secretary.

The results of the election of Freshman men officers have been announced. The election occurred Monday noon and the results were announced Saturday night. C. T. Questhin of Holts, N. H., was elected president. Questhin prepared for Tech at Exeter, and while there was prominent in athletic circles. At the temporary election held by the Freshmen early in the Fall he was elected temporary president and proved to be a very able and efficient one.

H. L. Fitchett of Brookline was elected vice-president, and E. H. Adams or Brookline was elected secretary. William Shakespeare of East Orange, N. J., who was the temporary treasurer, was elected to fill this office for the remainder of the year.

The men elected as members of the Executive class on the Institute Committee are: George P. Allen of Boston and T. F. Jewett of Buffalo, N. Y. The men elected to the Athletic association are: P. H. Buxton of Rochester and A. C. Lieber, Jr., of Jamaica Plains. The Executive Committee members are: J. F. C. Hyde of Brunswick, and H. M. Warren of Melrose. Of these men, five prepared for the Mechanics Arts H. H., while Buxton and Lieber were members of the Freshman football and relay teams, respectively.
