WIRELESS SOCIETY
MEETING YESTERDAY
New Government Examinations
Explained to Members Present.

Yesterday afternoon the Wireless Society held a monthly meeting in Room 11, Eng. B. As usual, a good attendance was shown. Mr. Franklin had read President Affet a paper on the new Government examinations for amateur wireless operators which are being held at the Charlestown Navy Yard. He said that, in the course of the paper, an explanation of the principles and operation of simple transmitting and receiving sets, and the candidates are expected to be familiar with a code of wireless laws known as the Berlin Conference.

Mr. Affet also explained the examination and mentioned the requirements for commercial operators. Mr. Affet then explained a form of receiving circuit which was displayed at the meeting.

All members of the local society are eligible to membership in the New England society.

A consideration concerning membership on the Institute Committee was taken up, and it was unanimously voted to petition that body for representation in their new building.

The meeting then adjourned until after the mid-year holidays.
