"Keeping a Stiff Front".

is as good in a man's character, as in his shirt. If his launderman will only iron that shirt front white and stiff he'll be satisfied. Well, we make a specialty of doing Laundry work as it should be done, and for that reason we always manage to keep our customers. We guarantee cleanliness and excellent finish to every article entrusted to us.

E. E. SOCIETY MEETING.
tions to the commission, and explained the meaning of several of the rulings that they had made. Admiral Farragut ended his report of the victory of Mobile Bay in 1864. He said that it was the men, not the ships and the guns, which won the battle, and then asked that he might have more men like those who had fought under him.

This training, if taken during two months, would enable the college graduate to take his place in the navy in time of war to act as officers over those who had no previous training. It will enable the Federal Government to form a naval reserve so that the navy can assume the offensive in case of war, and to make the line of first defense the shores of the enemy's country. For until the navy is completely obliterated there will be no
