REV. H. W. STEBBINS
NEXT T. C. A. SPEAKER

Chaplain of State Prison to Speak on Interesting Subject.

For next Thursday's speaker the T. C. A. has secured the Rev. Herbert W. Stebbins, chaplain of the State prison in Charlestown. His talk last year was well received and proved of interest to all because of the varied experiences of the speaker. As a result of his visit to Technology last year the Glee Club offered its services to entertain the prisoners confined at Charlestown. He will speak this year on the subject: "Why Men Come to Jail." He is a man who was in the convict, not a hopeless criminal, but a man who at the decisive moment failed, and needs a lift. In the years that he has acted as chaplain he has worked with that principle constantly in mind, and the classes that he conducts in the prison for men to teach them something that will be of use to them when they are once again free, are monuments of his good work.

The fact that he has met so many men who have failed in perhaps every run of life makes him a man able to give advice to college men who are about to start out in a new life.
