RELAY TEAM WEAKENED BY LOSS OF GERMAIN

Track Captain Will Be Unable to Run Saturday—Teams Picked.

Technology's chances of winning from the Blue Sox at Providence Saturday have been considerably lessened by the illness of Captain Germain. That veteran runner and the most highly esteemed member of the track team has been taken down with a fever which has kept him in bed for the past two days. It is feared that he may be out of the track season, at least for a few weeks. His absence will be a serious blow to the team, as he is one of their best runners.

CHAPLAIN TO SPEAK AT UNION TODAY

Mr. Stebbins, of the Charlestown Prison, to Give T. C. A. Talk.

The speaker whom the T. C. A. has selected for today's talk is no. to the student body of the Rev. Herbert W. Stebbins, chaplain of the State Prison at Charlestown, will be remembered by all students attending the Association's lectures. His subject for today is, "Why Men Come to Prison," and judging by his talk of last year, should he find his way into the Association's lectures. No regular, attendance is expected to hear him this year.

The Agitators of the House were so pleased with the Tech Show Orchestra, given a return engagement for next year.

Franklin Square House. It lasted for a full hour and a half, and the officers of the house were greatly pleased with the program. It was well planned and executed and made for those who prefer music to attend. A special Catholic service, offered by the Boston Public Library, will be held at the school on this evening.

The Tech Show Orchestra gave a big concert last Friday night at the Franklin Square House. It lasted for a full hour and a half, and the officers of the house were so pleased with the splendid evening's entertainment that they immediately gave the Orchestra a return engagement for next year. The hall was crowded to the utmost capacity, and many who were unable to secure seats rushed through the doors. After the concert all gathered in the dance, in which two hundred couples were on the floor.

TECH CANDIDATES.

A meeting of all candidates for the T. R. C.'s to be held in the lower office of the paper tomorrow, at 1:30 o'clock. All members of the Blue Sox and members of the Stallions' department must be present, as well as all men who are interested in running for the Tech but have not yet done so.

When in need of anything, no matter what it is, be sure and patronise our advertisers.