HERBERT W. STEBBINS
SPEAKS IN UNION

Discusses Importance of Moral Strength and Control in Life.

At 1.30, in the Union, yesterday, the Rev. Herbert W. Stebbins, chaplain of the State Prison at Charleroi, spoke to the followings that assembled to hear the weekly T. C. A. talk, on the subject, "The Man in Need of Help". The Rev. Stebbins is a man whose striking personality and con- sagrated life has left an indelible impression upon all who have had the privilege of hearing him. He is at the same time well known for his love of music, and has an unusually good voice.

The order of dances has been rearranged, and is now published for the first time:

1. Waltz
2. Two step
3. Waltz
4. Waltz
5. Schottische
6. Waltz
7. Waltz

In accordance with the custom followed at the Hesston Hop, it has been decided that Sowers will be permitted on the floor. It has been found that they interfere with the dancing, and for this reason the invitations are now finally announced to Mrs. B. B. MacAvoy, Mrs. E. T. Cole and Mrs. E. B. Millar.

The men who come there, the most pathetic is the weak fellow, who is living beyond his means. This is a common sight, and not lagging behind. It is a leader, for a leader must be ahead of his crowd and not being followed. It is the man who just gets by, and it is the man who wants to dance more nearly into an Institute of Life.

The prospects of having a successful chorus this year are very good, although a Grand Opera voice is by no means necessary to have a good chorus. The men must be able to dance, and be able to sing with good diction and enunciation. It is hoped that Coach Eugene MacAvoy will again be present, but if he is not here much good can be accomplished by a sectional music teacher. The candidates for Chorus will be announced in the next number of The Freshman.
