PROVIDENCE MEN WILL SUPPORT SHOW

Rehearsals Every Day This Week—Men to Be Married For Costumes Saturday.

For the last few days R. M. Weeks, general manager of Tech Show, has been communicating with some of the theatres in New York with Providence as to the advisability of having the show given there. As a result of this he has been permitted to have the show in Providence, and it will be definitely decided today whether New York will have it or not.

Several men in Providence who are interested in amateur theatres have volunteered to give their old and support to a production in that place.

Two of these gentlemen, Mr. Woolsey and Mr. Stiness, are not familiar with the repertoire and they are to be the scribes. The scribe may be arrested for committing at Washington, and the pool has decided that the play will be a postponement of the inaugural.

R. M. Weeks, the proprietor of Theatrical Management Co., has been communicating with some you.- Come up and see about a new dress suit, in time for Spring and Summer Stock of High Grade Fabrics.
