SHOW POSTERS OUT.

The new Tech Show Posters and Postal Cards are now on sale at the Union, both at the Cage and in the dining room. The Poster this year is the most striking that has ever been seen at Technology. It was drawn by Mr. Henry O. Glidden, a Senior in Course IV. Mr. Glidden has always been noted for his excelling drawings, and his poster this year is extraordinary in style and color.

Mr. Glidden must have spent at least one poster, and he should also send away several postal cards to his friends. The Posters may be purchased at 8.40 to 9.00 A.M., Daily; 5.30 to 6.00 P.M., Daily. Outside Tuesday and Thursday. 7.00 to 9.00 P.M. Friday.

There are still five 1914 Class pictures at the Cage that have not been sold. They are on general sale at $1.00 each. Those pictures who wish to get these pictures should pay their deposit now or on general sale at $1.00 each. Two pictures who wish to get the benefit of their deposit must call at the Cage immediately, as the pictures will be held within a few days, and no deposits will be refunded.

CHASE CLUB MEETS HARVARD TONIGHT

Crimson to Send Strong Team to Oppose Technology's Night Men.

Saturday evening the Technology and Harvard Chase Clubs will meet for the final match to decide the championship between the clubs. The two opposing teams have each won a match apiece, and a great deal of interest is being exhibited as to which will be the victor in the decisive tournament. Harvard will send eight men to meet Technology. The following men chosen to repre-
