SHOW PERFORMANCE AT NORTHAMPTON

Enthusiastic Audience at the First Production of the Play.

Friday night "Money in Sight" was given in Northampton before an enthusiastic audience made up mostly of Smith College girls. From the time that the curtain first went up to the finale, at the end of the last act, the house rang with the continual applause of the audience.

On account of the bad weather the scenery and costumes were delayed an hour and the performance did not begin until 9 o'clock. Nevertheless, the audience waited patiently and did not seem to be at all tired when the curtain finally went up on the first act.

A great deal of credit is due to Duff, Mann, the five girls, the two Beltrades, the ballet and Whitney, but the greatest amount of applause was given to the two Shedds. In their dance during the second act they gave four encores, and it was only because they had nothing else to dance that they did not come out the fifth time. Whitney did very good work and gave two encores while the ballet was called out a second time.

Of the songs were encored at least once and many were sung three times. Most of the dances were applauded, especially those which were danced by two or three.

The performance was marred here and there by a few minor mistakes, but these faults were not noticeable to the audience and were covered up very skillfully.

Taking the performance as a whole it was a very creditable piece of work but it is expected that the Boston matinee and evening Show will be far better as there will be another rehearsal of the entire cast and chorus, with orchestra, this afternoon at 4.15 o'clock.

M. E. SOCIETY TALK.

At a meeting of the Mechanical Engineering Society, to be held in 31 Engineering B, at 4.10 this afternoon, Mr. T. E. Moulthrop will conduct an informal talk on the difficulties of power plant maintenance.

A familiar saying at this time: "Say, have you a William that you don't need?"

FRESHMAN TEAM WINS TRACK MEET

Well Balanced and Enthusiastic Team Carries Away Honors.

On account of the bad weather the start was held over for the second time that the curtain first went up on the first act.

For the Freshmen the scores were: Reed who got first in the 440, tied for first in the high jump, and second in the 100 and broad jump, Gething, who won both the mile and half, and HANDSOME, who won both the 100 and 200, and got second in the low hurdles. Three times was alone scored in the hurdles and in the long jump.

For the Sophomores, Curtis took both of the hurdles and the 440. Alt took first in the discus and broad jump, while Connolly won the hammer and shot put.

The meet opened with a hymn
