COMMITTEE ON THE WALKER MEMORIAL AND GYMNASIUM REPORTS TO ALUMNI COUNCIL

Recommendations Made Propose Many Comforts and Pleasures For Future Students--Large Field For Athletics.

The summary of recommendations of the committee follows:

1. The Walker Memorial should be located on the campus but for those living outside on their way home, and for persons attending evening affairs in it. 2. As a memorial it should be a conspicuous site and an architecturally impressive exterior. 3. The gymnasium should be convenient for use by all. 4. The gymnasium and Walker Memorial should be located with reference to permanent use; the athletic field should be so located as to allow of competition and not to interfere with direct passes between the buildings.

The location preferred for the Walker Memorial is on the Esplanade, near Massachusetts Avenue. The Walker Memorial should be near the Dining Hall and the two should be connected by an Arcade. 5. The location preferred for the gymnasium is in the corner of Massachusetts Avenue and Vassar street, and the Walker Memorial will be kept in the Union. There are no lower than at any other store, but some of the student body who are interested in the matter.

The house has been studying the form of co-operative society that is used at Harvard. There the annual profits are divided among the shareholders in proportion to the amount of purchases that they have made during the year. The price of goods is not necessarily lower than in other stores, but stockholders have the privileges of special discounts at other stores throughout the city.

PLAN FOR STUDENT CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY

Report of Men in Prof. Pearson's Class to Be Put Before Students Soon.

Professor Pearson's class in Argumentation and Debate is planning to present to the Institute the fundamental of a plan for a student co-operative society. Four men have been asked to draw up a comprehensive report and to present it at the body meeting of the class, which comes on Saturday at 12 o'clock. Then the same report will be presented at a week from today to all members of the student body who are interested in the matter.

The plan has been to form a co-operative society that is used at Harvard. There the students are divided among the shareholders in proportion to the amount of purchases that they have made during the year. The price of goods is not necessarily lower than at other stores, but stockholders have the privileges of special discounts at other stores throughout the city.

INTER-COURSE MEET.

Cups on Exhibition in Union.

The entry books for the annual Fahy meetings will soon be posted in the Union. This competition is open to everyone, and Coach Kenly expects a large number of men to enter the various events. The meet will be conducted exactly as a big one would be, and entries will be run off with as little delay as possible.

Plans for this meet are on exhibition in the Union and are splendid for the purpose for which they have been drawn up. The meet will be conducted exactly as a big one would be, and entries will be run off with as little delay as possible.

The entry books for the annual Fahy meetings will soon be posted in the Union. This competition is open to everyone, and Coach Kenly expects a large number of men to enter the various events. The meet will be conducted exactly as a big one would be, and entries will be run off with as little delay as possible.

WEATHER

Forecast for Boston and vicinity: Wednesday, fair, moderate northerly to counterly winds.

CALENDAR

Wednesday, April 23, 1913

4.15--Crewe Practice at A. A. Club House.

6.30--Junior Class Meeting--Union.

Thursday, April 24, 1913

3.30--Baseball at Bridge.

4.15--Junior Class Meeting--Union.

4.15--G. B. Society Nominations.

8.00--Tech Show at Malin Auditorium.