WILSON, Adams and Wilkins promise a great race Sunday. They are all rounding into shape, Adams having done the 220 in 23 flat last Monday, Wilson is credited with fast time in a 150 trial yesterday.

FOUR TEAMS TO BOWL.
Luxuries Meet the Moguls and Meccas Roll Fatimas.

This evening the last four teams in the standing of the Tech Bowling League will roll on the Trinity Court Alumni. The Moguls will be opposed by the Fatimas, and the Luxuries will try to overcome the Moguls. The standing of the teams now shows the Faculty team, the Pall Malls, in the lead. The teams that roll this evening however, are well bunched, and a change in the standing may very easily result during the evening. The Faculty has been bowling remarkably all season and looks like an easy win.

Captain Germain is in very poor condition but expects to round into form before long.

Byland, Dean, and a couple of others had a brisk brush for about three hundred yards yesterday, finishing with Byland well in the lead.

Some of the half-milers, after seeing that cup on display at the Union, have decided that they can finish a mile in good shape.
