Taft is especially anxious that the visitors will also enjoy the exhibition parade. The M. I. T. Regiment will hold a banquet in a large hall nearby.

WRESTLING SQUAD HAS BANQUET AT PLAZA

Saturday evening the Plaza Hotel entertained twenty of the wrestling squad at a banquet, characterized by the strong enthusiasm to make wrestling a leading sport at the institution, and the manner of expressing the thanks to various men who have assisted the squad. The affair was the sports department. Cabaret entertainers and singing by the men are reported to have the effect of making the dinner a social success, and the election of Linwood, and Smythe-Martin, as captain and manager, and the unanimous standing of the support to those men, and the welfare of the sport stimulated the spirit of the idea that it expect the results next year.

Captain Frost, of this year's team, acted as moderator, calling first upon Smythe-Martin, who gave a history of the team from an aggregation scarcely heard of two years ago to one which is as well known in the country, and which has held the cardinal, and are high by an unbroken string of victories. He was optimistic regarding next year's results, and expressed the desire that the team have the best of the best in the country, at the request of Smythe-Martin, then gave an account of the meeting of the Alvaide Council, where wrestling was recognized as a Varsity sport.

J. D. Kelly was strong in expressing appreciation of the work done by Smythe-Martin and Stevens in helping wrestling at the Institute, and stated the reasons why it had been started, what it had done, and gave the reasons why it had been successful.
