The Architectural Society will hold its annual smoker at 7:30 this evening, in Room 42, Pierce. Mr. A. H. Cox, former Instructor in Architectural Design, will speak. The fresh-air ideas that he possesses will be the keynote of his address, which will be given before the student body. The program will be concluded with the distribution of prizes.

ARCTECTURAL SOCIETY

The Architectural Society will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock, in Room 42, Pierce. The report of the Educational and the Junior Week Committees are expected in full. All other reports should be ready for an attempt to be made to wind up the business for the year.

That hammer cage at the Field has caused a good deal of comment, even amongst the Institute.
