Tech men are cordially invited to come, give an address tonight at the reception under the presidency of men that will be of immense value to you in later life. The choosing of your class is yours!

Your path of duty lies straight before you. A little more than a month distant looms the shadow of Field Day, when the votes have been issued and now, men of the class will be reorganized. No votes will be counted unless the required number is present at the time of the nomination. The society has already made out an elaborate program for the coming year, and it is felt that it is absolutely necessary to raise more money to carry out the proposed plans. The executive committee hopes that all the members will present at this important meeting to reorganize the association and to give it an up-to-date constitution.

A committee of five, consisting of T. F. Spear, chairman; H. Lieb, J. M. Livermore, G. Urquhart and G. B. Hilton, was appointed to take charge of the class elections. The nominations will be received at the Cage office, from today, and will close one week from today. The ballots are due two weeks from today, which will be Oct. 16th.

The present executive board of the class of 1915 held its last meeting yesterday in Rogers. A committee of five, consisting of T. F. Spear, chairman; H. Lieb, J. M. Livermore, G. Urquhart and G. B. Hilton, was appointed to take charge of the class elections. The nominations for the class officers open today, and will close one week from today. The ballots are due two weeks from today, which will be Oct. 16th.
