The Sophomore committee, in charge of the Tech Night theater performance, consisting of Lucas, Shakespeare and Storm, has made all the preparations for the sale of seats. As previously stated in the columns of THE TECH, the show will be the "Honeymoon Express," at the Shubert, with Al Johnson in the leading role.

The seats will be on sale in Rogers Corridor next Monday at 1 P.M. As is customary, the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors will have seats on the floor of the house, while the Freshmen will occupy the balcony.

This year the committee is introducing a new feature, a reserved section for the Faculty and the Alumni. Sale of seats in these reservations will open at 1 P.M. Monday and close at 2 P.M. the same day. The Faculty will sit in the first row of the orchestra under the balcony. The location of the Alumni section has not yet been announced.

TRAINING TABLE

Cross-Country Team Secures Place At 31 Newbury Street.

The management of the Cross-Country Team has succeeded in getting a training table at 31 Newbury Street, and from all indications the service will be most satisfactory. The men will get luncheons and dinners there every day of the training season, beginning Monday. Until the team is picked on next Saturday all men on the squad will eat there. The men making the team and those of the Freshman class that are going out in quartets. A cut must be made, oil today that at the next rehearsal they may not win the event. The Field may a most interesting race will be run off. C. Guettling, Benson and Brown are all on scratch. All men have been finishing neck and neck throughout the season, it is impossible to say which will come out victor.

CHEMISTS MEET TODAY AT THREE

FALL HANDICAP MEET TODAY AT THREE

Running Events Well Contested—But Few Entries In Field.

The Annual Fall Handicap Meet will be held this afternoon at the Field promptly at three o'clock. Although the entry books were closed Thursday night, it is not too late to register, and entries will be received at the Field up to the running of the event. Up to the present, the great weakness seems to be in the weight events, in which men of no special standing were entered to to to fill in. Coach Kanaly hopes that others interested in the weight events will come out and some good entries will be received.

In the 100 yards, Wilson is scratch man, and Loonias is a slender handicap. They will have hands full in finishing ahead of the other men favored with bigger handicaps. O'Hara and Wilson will scratch men in the 220, and should furnish an interesting contest, although they may not win the event. In the 440, Guettling is scratch, and he will have some trouble in overtaking Reed and Peaslee, who have ten and twelve yards respectively. T. H. Guettling and R. Dean will finish the spectators a close finish, and it would not be surprising to see the former favored with his handicap, win his event.

Cook and Benson are on scratch in the mile. A most interesting race will be run off. C. Guettling, Benson and Brown are all on scratch. All men have been finishing neck and neck throughout the season, it is impossible to say which will come out victor.

The Field may a most interesting race will be run off. C. Guettling, Benson and Brown are all on scratch. All men have been finishing neck and neck throughout the season, it is impossible to say which will come out victor.