THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Quotations From THE TECH Of

Oct. 31, 1883.

“The Freshmen now number two hundred and eighteen.

"Advanced German seems coming up in favor. This year Prof. Otis has a class of ten, which is much larger than any of past years.

“ar are asked to announce that the Y. M. C. A. will occupy their new building, just across the street, in a few weeks.

"86 has elected the following class officers: F. L. Locke, president; S. R. Bartlett, secretary; J. F. Lynch, treasurer.

“No new boiler, sixty horse-power, will be placed in the basement of Rogers this week, making an aggregate of two hundred horse-power.

“Fourtempts to have the students of Case School of Applied Science succeed in fastening a huge banner with their numerals painted on it to the top of the 150 ft. ladderless smokestack. The 1917 class with equal ingenuity immediately removed the flag.

Dartmouth has issued a call for volunteers from the upper classes, who will comprise a free tutoring bureau for those students who cannot afford a private tutor.

The New Model No. 5 Prin-type Oliver Typewriter makes an ideal machine for students’ use. It is a marvel of simplicity, durability and ease of operation. Prin-type your notes and they will be twice as valuable to you. Easy terms if desired.

Do this—and you’ll have no regrets

See us today about that overcoat you’ll need. Why? Because you won’t be able to secure choice patterns much longer. Again why? Because—of tariff changes resulting in a short woolen supply—and even our large stock, carefully provided, going rapidly.

Today’s the day to order.

Prices—$25.00 to $60.00.
