Conflicts

After two editorials have been run in this column on the subject of conflicting dates, it rather grieves us that no one need think his chances of winning the five dollars would be any greater.

Hockey

Tech's hockey team goes on the ice this afternoon, and plays its first game of the season. We understand, on Saturday night, that the Harvard hockey game will be held at the junior dinner. Should this prove true, we feel that the conflict which is due to the dispute in the arranging of dates, will not be allowed to pass without notice.

It is proposed by a member of the Legislature of the State of Ohio that the name of Ohio State University be changed to Ohio University. The difficulty arises from the fact that there is a small college in Athens, Ohio, called Ohio University.
