The new Class Constitution, drawn up and approved by the Institute Committee, went into effect on December 29, 1913. It provides for temporary government of freshmen in the event of non-payment of dues before the general order of things is that all members must be eligible for membership.

Section 1.-All persons taking a class shall be temporary managers of the three Field Day teams, and by one other Junior, as temporary treasurer.

Section 2.-The temporary chairman, temporary treasurer, and the three temporary managers shall be sub-committee of the Institute Committee, and shall be responsible to that committee for the affairs of the freshmen class.

Section 3.-The temporary chairman, temporary treasurer, and the three temporary managers shall be sub-committee of the Institute Committee, and shall be responsible to that committee for the affairs of the freshmen class.

Section 4.-The temporary chairman, temporary treasurer, and the three temporary managers shall be sub-committee of the Institute Committee, and shall be responsible to that committee for the affairs of the freshmen class.

Section 5.-The temporary chairman, temporary treasurer, and the three temporary managers shall be sub-committee of the Institute Committee, and shall be responsible to that committee for the affairs of the freshmen class.

Section 6.-The temporary managers shall, during the first two weeks of the term, act as directors, two representatives to the Institute Committee, and two representatives to the M. T. F. A. A. all.

Section 7.-The temporary managers shall assume the duties of the treasurer during his tenure of office.

Section 8.-Officers.

Section 1.-The officers of this class shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, two Directors, two representatives to the Institute Committee, and two representatives to the M. T. F. A. A.

The Tech Hockey Team will play Dartmouth at the Arena tonight at 8:30. Tech will have to play the limit as Dartmouth has lost only one man from its team and is looking forward to a good game. The lineup is as follows:

Dartmouth: Wannamaker, r: MacLeod, (Capt.): Frost, h: Stock, L: DeLonger (Capt.) p: Corcoran: D: Loo.

The Dramatic Club of Williams College is now making a tour of four of the New York cities during their Christmas vacation.

RIFLE CLUB

Team Entered For Intercollegiate Shoot.

The Rifle Club has entered a team of ten men for the intercollegiate rifle shooting championship matches which are to be held in a few weeks. Thirty-three other colleges and universities are in the competition, which will be supervised by U. S. G. O. officers, acting as National Rifle Association judges.

The institutions this year are divided into three classes, M. I. T. being in Class A with Mass. Agricultural College, Harvard University, and U. of Wisconsin. The Tech men are in Class B with U. of Minnesota, U. of Michigan, and U. of California. Last season West Virginia won the championship.