9. The former made 8 points and wore the game, the latter scored 11 points. Richardson starred for the team, making a total of 13.
The Sophomore attack on the 1917 goal was so fierce that the baskets became disabled at one time during the game. It worked loose from its fastenings and nearly came down.
Manager Rausch, one of the '17 team, climbed boldly up and made sufficient repairs with rope.
The line-up was as follows:

ALUMNI REUNIONS
Maccluer for the first time in the Mississippi Valley. The occasion will be an important one from the engin-er's point of view, as well as from the social, since the Keskiuk dam, Gary Steel Plant, and the works of the Universal Portland Cement Company are to be visited. It is proposed to send five cars of Tech men to Chicago from the East, and from Albany out there will be twenty hours of consecutive reunions as the groups from the various large centres take the special train.
Carnegie Tech calls Al Johnson a
"real twenty." comedian.
