WRESTLING MEET

Teli was unfortunate in having only one of men. Rounds, taken sick in the midst of his bout. Rounds-ouclassed his opponent completely during the first six minutes, but was then so weakened by his illness that he could scarcely move his limbs. He had been feeling out of sorts for several days. Captain Kelly, who usually has a walkaway, found he had no opponent this time who was worthy of him. He was unable to get a full, although he did not have any great difficulty in winning the decision. Durkee showed great form in his bout, which was his first appearance as an amateur wrestler, although he is the champion novice wrestler in the 125-pound class.

RIFLE CLUB

Pistol Practice Begins—Rifle Match Tomorrow.

The Rifle Club began practice last week, and invites all those interested in this to join the club. The range is fifty feet, and 22 calibre pistols and revolvers may be used; the club furnishes ammunition and targets free to members. The membership fee is $1.00, and dues are $1.00 per year.

Tomorrow Tech will hold the first of its matches in the intercollegiate rifle shoot. In these, teams of ten men each, and the scoring of the highest five men. The loss of Stewart is felt greatly, but Tech still has a good chance to win its match with the University of California tomorrow.

Rifle practice is held every Wednesday and Friday, from four to seven o'clock, at the First Corps of Cadets' Armoury. Springfield and Winchester rifles are used.

CERCLE FRANCAIS

There will be a meeting of the Cercle Francais on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the Union. All who are interested in French are invited.

The first half of the 22d Annual Chess Intercollegiates were played off in New York on Saturday. Yale won three matches from Columbia and tied the fourth.

An number of the products of Dr. Schlemmer's excavations at the site of ancient Troy have been recently placed in the museum at the University of Pennsylvania.
