BISHOP Wm. LAWRENCE ON RESERVE POWER

"Take Your Holiday With Your Job"
Part Of Bishop’s Advice
In T. C. A. Talk.

Neglect of the factor of safety or failure to calculate for peak load is a habit in characters as well as in building, according to Bishop Lawrence, who spoke for twenty minutes yesterday noon at the regular T. C. A. gathering and in some part made the subject of "Reserve Power" a very live one.

Scientific teaching, said the Bishop, tends to lead one to the assumption that it is sufficient when a design has met the requirements of an estimate, and such a design, when one’s strength is just made equal to the stress imposed, is likely to break down under the additional load that will be imposed if the reserves are not observed. If the presence of reserve power strengthen-"es confidence and thus makes our work a soberly cautious one, is a point which Bishop Lawrence was careful to emphasize.

Physical reserve power, continued the Bishop, is of prime importance. We must have the consciousness that we have a reserve behind us that can be drawn upon. Such a feeling can only come from a feeling that reserve power built up by constant, unceasing effort is something we can rely on.

Three day’s vacation appeared to be a theme of conversation yesterday, when the man in 50 T. C. A. was questioned as to the reason for taking the vacation. Bishop Lawrence, to whom Bishop Lawrence

ADVISORY COUNCIL AWARDS INSIGNIA

New Insignia For Men Winning a "T" More Than Once--Awards Of "C"T" Given.

At the last meeting of the Advisory Council on Athletics the following men were awarded T’s for their work in the Annual Fall Handicap, cross-country run at Wakefield this year in making the four fastest times: P. M. Currier ’14, A. E. Pea-der ’14, L. E. Best ’15 and M. E. Brock ’17.

At the meeting considerable discussion was held concerning the manager for the year who would be chosen. The candidates met a second and final cut will be made next Monday afternoon. The candidates were: James C. Mitchell, to whom Bishop Lawrence had never taken exercise or recreation. Such a feeling was taken by Bishop Lawrence.

extra power.

The management will endeavor to get the best of this with Harvard, who has just resigned from the parl...