PLANS FOR ELECTRICALS' MID-YEAR TRIP READY

Preliminary Schedule Arranged—Men Must Sign Up Before Monday With Harvards.

All persons who are going on the mid-year trip must sign up before Tuesday, January 20th. At the time of signing up they will be notified whether they have to make any trip before the deposit. The deposit can be made on hand at the time of signing up. No exceptions to the regular trip must be presented in writing or in order that the tourist agency may be notified of the change.

The principal feature of the schedule will be the Architectural Society last evening was a "Shop Talk" meeting of the Architectural Club of Boston. Mr. Newell said that a man that is interested in Architecture must be cleverly handicapped. When he gets out into the world he should be ready to work on the next job resolved to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The old-fashioned lightning rod sets a good example to the architect. This man has his arm always extended upward to catch inspiration. Photographs, like lightning from the sky, will occur to him, and the band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

It is the responsibility of the Architect to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The problem in the Philippines is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

Mr. Egan was also of the opinion that this country might do more for the development of its trade in the Philippines and that new conditions must be given at the present time while the canal is still under construction.

The problem, in the Philippines, is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

MUSICAL CLUBS MEETING

Dixon Elected Vice-President—Norton Secretary

The Musical Clubs held a meeting in the Union yesterday afternoon to elect a president and secretary. Ross Dixon 1914 was unanimously elected president, while Norton 1913 was nominated for secretary.

The vote was unanimous, and the president and secretary were elected.

The problems for the pictures of the clubs, taken at Norman's, will be at the Caper's Club this week. The cost of the large photos of the combined clubs is a dollar and a half, while the smaller photos of the separate clubs is one dollar and a quarter. Those who wish pictures should sign up for same on the back of the cards they choose.

ADVISES ARCHITECTS TO STUDY IN ITALY

Speaker At Last Night's Smoker Advises Prodigy Of Talents For Harvards.

The principal feature of the schedule given by the Architectural Society last evening was a "Shop Talk" meeting of the Architectural Club of Boston. Mr. Newell said that a man that is interested in Architecture must be cleverly handicapped. When he gets out into the world he should be ready to work on the next job resolved to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The old-fashioned lightning rod sets a good example to the architect. This man has his arm always extended upward to catch inspiration. Photographs, like lightning from the sky, will occur to him, and the band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

It is the responsibility of the Architect to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The problem in the Philippines is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

Mr. Egan was also of the opinion that this country might do more for the development of its trade in the Philippines and that new conditions must be given at the present time while the canal is still under construction.

The problem, in the Philippines, is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

MUSICAL CLUBS MEETING

Dixon Elected Vice-President—Norton Secretary

The Musical Clubs held a meeting in the Union yesterday afternoon to elect a president and secretary. Ross Dixon 1914 was unanimously elected president, while Norton 1913 was nominated for secretary.

The vote was unanimous, and the president and secretary were elected.

The problems for the pictures of the clubs, taken at Norman's, will be at the Caper's Club this week. The cost of the large photos of the combined clubs is a dollar and a half, while the smaller photos of the separate clubs is one dollar and a quarter. Those who wish pictures should sign up for same on the back of the cards they choose.

ADVISES ARCHITECTS TO STUDY IN ITALY

Speaker At Last Night's Smoker Advises Prodigy Of Talents For Harvards.

The principal feature of the schedule given by the Architectural Society last evening was a "Shop Talk" meeting of the Architectural Club of Boston. Mr. Newell said that a man that is interested in Architecture must be cleverly handicapped. When he gets out into the world he should be ready to work on the next job resolved to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The old-fashioned lightning rod sets a good example to the architect. This man has his arm always extended upward to catch inspiration. Photographs, like lightning from the sky, will occur to him, and the band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

It is the responsibility of the Architect to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The problem in the Philippines is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

Mr. Egan was also of the opinion that this country might do more for the development of its trade in the Philippines and that new conditions must be given at the present time while the canal is still under construction.

The problem, in the Philippines, is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

MUSICAL CLUBS MEETING

Dixon Elected Vice-President—Norton Secretary

The Musical Clubs held a meeting in the Union yesterday afternoon to elect a president and secretary. Ross Dixon 1914 was unanimously elected president, while Norton 1913 was nominated for secretary.

The vote was unanimous, and the president and secretary were elected.

The problems for the pictures of the clubs, taken at Norman's, will be at the Caper's Club this week. The cost of the large photos of the combined clubs is a dollar and a half, while the smaller photos of the separate clubs is one dollar and a quarter. Those who wish pictures should sign up for same on the back of the cards they choose.

ADVISES ARCHITECTS TO STUDY IN ITALY

Speaker At Last Night's Smoker Advises Prodigy Of Talents For Harvards.

The principal feature of the schedule given by the Architectural Society last evening was a "Shop Talk" meeting of the Architectural Club of Boston. Mr. Newell said that a man that is interested in Architecture must be cleverly handicapped. When he gets out into the world he should be ready to work on the next job resolved to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The old-fashioned lightning rod sets a good example to the architect. This man has his arm always extended upward to catch inspiration. Photographs, like lightning from the sky, will occur to him, and the band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

It is the responsibility of the Architect to give the best that is in him. This band and mind must be taught to expect the unexpected.

The problem in the Philippines is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

Mr. Egan was also of the opinion that this country might do more for the development of its trade in the Philippines and that new conditions must be given at the present time while the canal is still under construction.

The problem, in the Philippines, is to be solved by the government of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines has called for a meeting of the conditions existing there before acting on the permanent disposal of the Philippine question.

MUSICAL CLUBS MEETING

Dixon Elected Vice-President—Norton Secretary

The Musical Clubs held a meeting in the Union yesterday afternoon to elect a president and secretary. Ross Dixon 1914 was unanimously elected president, while Norton 1913 was nominated for secretary.

The vote was unanimous, and the president and secretary were elected.

The problems for the pictures of the clubs, taken at Norman's, will be at the Caper's Club this week. The cost of the large photos of the combined clubs is a dollar and a half, while the smaller photos of the separate clubs is one dollar and a quarter. Those who wish pictures should sign up for same on the back of the cards they choose.