DR. GIFFORD SPEAKS AT T. C. A. MEETING

Talks on "The Rich Fool" to a Large Crowd in Union Yesterday.

Dr. O. P. Gifford, D. D., the well-known pastor of the Brookline Baptist Church, was the speaker at the regular Tuesday noon T. C. A. meeting in the Union yesterday. Dr. Gifford is always a favorite speaker at these meetings and the fact that he was to speak brought out a good number of men.

The subject of his talk was "The Rich Fool". He showed the difference between the way men set out to obtain wealth and to obtain wisdom. Getting money involved the active form of the verb of life while the acquiring of wisdom treats life as a verb in the passive form. Money may be inherited but wisdom can only be the result of a man's own effort to attain it. It is the deeper, quieter side of life while riches involve the more forced activity. Wisdom is like the cream of the still milk of life, while wealth is the butter of the churned milk.

He told the parable of the foolish rich man who had acquired great wealth and set about to enlarge his storehouses to hold more goods and then proceeded to eat, drink and be merry rather than to lay up the time and opportunity for acquiring knowledge. All that he could acquire of wealth was simply more of the same things he already had and did not need any more of and could not take with him. He had neglected to take into account the time factor which is beyond any man's control and on which we must all figure. We may acquire lots of riches but their possession does not pass on to us and we may never have the time allotted us in which to enjoy them.

But, after all, the limitations of great wealth are so narrow, while there is no limit to the amount of wisdom that can be acquired. An increase in wealth simply brings a man more of the same things he already has, but an increase in wisdom always adds something new to a man's life and opens up the way to get more.

Any man is with that study in which a man is most interested. If he shows his interest in his work and the instructor begins to see the student's interest, then the student will have a great opportunity to get the most out of the course, as the instructor will take pleasure in helping and giving that student all the richness of his knowledge.

And, so, as a man gives all of the richness of his life to God, he will be perfectly amazed to find out how much God will be ready and sure to give in return out of the richness of his own love and wisdom.

PUZZLE SOLVED

Hughes (he is such a nice fellow isn't he), and when I saw him in repeated conversation with the man I thought of course he was my selection.

Very clever for a freshman wasn't it? At any rate all of our congratulations are due Mr. Chair. We feel sure that he will make a success in life.

As for the name of the man chosen that is to remain a dark secret. To learn the name of such an illustrious celebrity with ability enough to handle a part in such a remarkable production as "Fish-habible" is to be, requires a ticket to that performance, as his name is not to be divulged until the programs for that evening are printed.

We all that want to have their curiosity on this point satisfied must purchase a ticket from one of the twenty-five men that are now disposing of them. There are not so awfully many of these tickets left either so that all desiring one should make it a point to get one as soon as possible.
