Table for Steel Detailing and Designing

By J. A. AURINGER C. E., A. B. CO. ENG’R.

These Tables are for the draftsman and designer of steel structures compiled from the AMERICAN BRIDGES CO’s Green Book of Standards, with new headings. The data is detailed, descriptive, adequate, and the steel company, and will save the time, expense and worry of determining the stresses in the members.

Belt second, Day tipping all his hur-Charley Reed and Clarkson were the only Sophomores entered in the preliminaries.

The high jump was more of a fea-ure event than usual. Childs, ’16, and Dowen, ’17, were the surprises of the evening. Doone captured first, just beating out Childs for the place. Third place was split up between two Freshmen and two Sophomores. C. S. Reed did not get over the effects of the hurdles and continued them right through the high jump, succeeding in hurdling five feet four and three-quarters. Sullivan and Over also passed on at this point. Doone won with a jump of five feet, five and three-quarters.

The event succeeded in rousing considerable enthusiasm between the participants.

In the dash the Freshmen were badly handicapped by the loss of O’Hara.

Loomis scored first with 10th second
