FRESHMEN TEAM GOES TO ANDOVER TODAY

1917 has good chance to defeat Andover in dual meet at Andover today.

The Freshman track team leaves this noon at 12.36 from the North station for Andover to compete against that school in their first outside meet. The outcome of the meet cannot be definitely prophesied. The 1917 team will be without the services of R. W. Curin in the shot and K. H. Day in the hurdles, which may seriously affect the outcome, as both were sure point winners in their events.

Capitan Sullivan will be back in form and is sure to win in the high jump without trouble with J. W. Doon as runner-up. F. P. O’Hara is sure of the dash and should finish well up to the front in the 200. R. D. Swall, the star of Tuesday’s meet, may be expected to win points in the shot, hurdles and pole-vault. The Freshman Relay Team will be an especially strong combination: L. Goby, F. P. O’Hara, D. C. Thompson, R. C. Seb. The other men who will make the trip are: J. J. Dennelly, C. C. Brock in the 1000; D. C. Thompson, L. Williams, H. Allen in the 880. D. Bell in the hurdles; N. W. Gokel in the high-jump; A. H. Knapp in pole-vault; W. A. Seymour and G. H. Stevens in the shot, who should be able to carry off enough points and thirde to win the meet. No team will be allowed to enter the new indoor heat of each event.

The meet will be held in the 1250-seat met by the Endicott Bowl; and no less than thirty hours of time for Yesh.

DESIGN EXHIBIT

A number of architectural designs, which are the work of Professor Le. Monnier, are on exhibition in the gallery of the second floor of Pierce building. ‘The room is open to all, and the drawings are all carefully to see the drawings.

Show. They will work as assistants during the remainder of the year, and the one that shows himself the more capable will become Business Manager next year.

The competition for the positions in the department which are filled by freshmen has been exceptionally keen. Only by delaying his selection for two weeks was Business Manager Charles R. Lord able to make a choice. C. H. Roberts, W. L. Ford, and L. L. McGrady were finally chosen.

Mrs. Adams, the dancing instructor for the show, held a final dancing trial for those who are to be in the ballet. The following men were rechosen: R. W. Ford, Choc, Gillette, Bell, Couch, Whitney and Houser.

There are to be no rehearsals this afternoon in any department of the show.

NOTICES

The picture of the 1917 first basketball team will be taken at Nolman’s at 3:15 next Monday.

No Hare and Hounds

Owing to the unsatisfactory condition of the weather and ground cross-country and Hound Run will be held this afternoon. This is unfortunate as it will only allow of two rules before the Annual Freshman Sophomore Run.
