A man made "some" lovers. R. H. White, '16, was certainly near perfection as the Back Bay society dame and E. G. Brown, '13, maintained his reputation as a real honest to goodness imitation lady, taking the part of the daughter. W. T. Schaefer, '14, in his red wig as Miss Daily Heart; A. G. Leach, '14, as President Tech; and G.E. Whitwell as President Harvard, showed up well. The parody on the "Curse of a Broken Heart" pleased the house. The entertainment closed with the singing of the Stein Song.

The dance in the Union was the other feature of the night, and with five minutes to twelve the orchestras had scarcely a minute's rest.

The committee in charge of the show was C. P. Flake, '14, chairman; T. J. Darfield, '14, and G. E. Whitwell, '14. D. L. Hughes, '15, was electrician, W. L. Graves, '15, his assistant, and M. Werlich, '15, made a popular property man. The usher were A. C. Dorrance, '14; C. E. Fox, '15; T. H. Guethier, '14; W. P. Keil, '14; A. F. Peabody, '14; P. W. Leonard, '17; P. E. Halbusd, '17; P. F. Scully, '15; G. R. Urgushar, '15; G. B. Hilton, '15; K. Dean, '15; N. McRae, '15; K. M. Sully, '15; and C. W. Loomis, '15. K. E. Dawson, Jr., '14; P. E. Morrill, '14; N. D. MacLeod, '14, and V. E. Wardwell, '15, were at the door and A. M. Waitt, '14, was the ticket man.

The Editors announce that long and short stories and fiction articles are wanted for the next issue. Further information may be obtained from the Assistant Editor-in-Chief, L. K. Best, '15, or by application at THE TECH office.

and take a turn about the links. If any of the men would care to have lunch there before the run or stay for supper afterwards they may be served at the regular price of $0.50 for the former or $0.75 for the latter. In such a case they are asked to notify Class Captain Best, care of THE TECH, before Friday.

As the upper class men will remember, the country about Wellesley and Wellesley Hills it would be a great advantage if any who care to come.

If any men are familiar with the country about Wellesley and Wellesley Hills it would be a great advantage if they would come out and lay trail as the Hares.

WRESTLING

The wrestling meet between Tech and Y. M. C. A. has been postponed until a later date. Next Saturday the team will go down to New Haven where it will meet Yale wrestlers.

TECHNIQUE ELEC. COMM.

At the 1916 Technique Electoral Committee meeting held last Friday a committee was elected to conduct a competition for Art Editor and Assistant Art Editors for the 1916 Technique. The members are: T. K. Hines (Chairman), G. Garzino, S. Parkinson, and D. B. Webster.
