ARCHITECTS MEETING
Life of Students Abroad To Be Described by W. T. Aldrich.

The Architectural Society holds a Smoker tonight in Room 15 Florcn. Mr. W. T. Aldrich, of Belows & Aldrich, Architects, and instructor of design in the Department of Architecture, will give a talk on "Student Life at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris."

Mr. Aldrich spent several years at the Ecole, and is well fitted to tell about the life of the Architectural student abroad. All who are interested are urged to attend. After the talk, a usual "food" will be provided.

This is the last opportunity to obtain tickets of the officers of the society.

RIFLE CLUB
Practice To Begin Tomorrow at Walnut Hill Grounds.

Outdoor rifle practice will begin tomorrow at the Walnut Hill range. A party in charge of T. D. Parsons will leave the North Station on the 3.30 P. M. train. Each member must get his rifle from the South Armory with an order, which may be obtained from Carl, Hamlin, Pres. Cameron, Vice President Dunn, or Secretary Parsons, officers of the Club.

The outdoor form, which is to be entered in the Intercollegiate match, will consist of six men and a substitute. Competition for membership on the team is expected to be keen, so all ambitious men are expected to take this opportunity to begin practice early. Inclement weather would, of course, prevent practice tomorrow.

There will be no practice at the First Corps Armory tonight.
