SPRING MEET CREATES GREAT CONSTERNATION

Nineteen Fourteen Out for Blood
-Gordon White, Ancient Manager, Inspired.

Monday's announcement concerning the Spring Meet has had its effect. The war horses of 1914 are in the offing and a hale and hearty Gordon White has emerged from his mummy case and the reins of the Ancient Manager is Rings in the ears of the fans in the morning to break the staid record of Spring is with us. Bill, basking in the warmth of the Vernal Equinox at the Field, sent us this:
"The track" says Bill, is quivering with excitement. The frost is begging for respite and we told it to dry up. Three days more we have given it; then the entire corps of the Heat Lab is coming to force it out.
The clothes in the lockers are begining with excitement. The frost is at the Field, sent us this:
