The seventy-nine men who signified their intention of coming out for track, twenty-six have not reported even once as yet. Work is laid out for these men and is ready at the field for them any day they go out. (The spirit that characterized the track meet has not been lived up to, unfortunately.

Fast times are not expected next Saturday in the cross country run as the ground is in such soggy condition. The men who ran Tuesday afternoon experienced all the joys of any of the famous mud baths.

Johnstone and Camp, the two high jumpers at Harvard, are going to meet a good man at the Penn Relay Carnival in Wahl of the University of Wisconsin. Wahl in a recent meet cleared six feet two inches and it is believed that, all conditions being favorable, he will be able to get over six feet four.

Over two hundred and fifty colleges are to be represented in the Relay Carnival at Pennsylvania this spring.

The Field took on its usual spring appearance Tuesday when it was opened. A large number of track men were out as well as two of the class baseball teams.

The Froshmen are showing considerable activity in the Field events this year. On the opening day of the outdoor season three or four were practicing with the hammer and discuss and as many more were at the field jump.

TRIPLE "E" NOTICE

Course II, B. E. E. 616, will meet for lecture at the regular hour (11-12) on Friday, in place of recitations as announced Monday.

Harrison W. Smith.

that the schedules of first year students are well filled will excuse the statement made that books are not thrown about the Union, for it is in those hours when all true students are at classes that these idlers take up. Unfortunately, his whole criticism, while showing that he has an interest in the subject, shows that his judgment can only be used for his own affairs while about the Union or else that he frequents it only for the purpose of listening to the T. C. A. talks.

We make a special effort to win the esteem of Tech men.

One of my greatest joys at college was attentively listening to the grand old glee club, while I most contentedly smoked those good old Fatima Cigarettes! Happy days that can be recollected only in memory, but those good old Fatimtas have been with me through thick and thin ever since.

Pure, good, choice tobacco, in a plain package, but you can't beat 'em! Happy days! More Fatimas are sold in the United States than any other cigarette.

Today's communicant, if we overlook his discourtesy to the writer of Tuesday's editorial and his cool assumption of his own superior knowledge, is partly right in his contention that the editorial in question overemphasized one side of the subject. It did not purport to present more than the one viewpoint; he, however, has either been absorbed in his own affairs while about the Union or interfered with the other. If students, as we find our communicant under the first year lists in the catalog we presume that he was not well enough acquainted with the doings at the Institute to have read several articles in the past dealing specifically with the great annoyance caused by excelled and forgetful cardplayers during the T. C. A. talks.
