COLLEGE NEWS

Holders of degrees from other colleges or universities will be barred from athletic teams at the University of Pennsylvania in future competitions, according to a new regulation adopted by the Faculty Athletic Committee. The new rule will not be enforced against men who are now entering Pennsylvania and are otherwise eligible.

Recently the members of the upper law classes of the College of Law at Syracuse held a meeting to consider a report that a strike had been threatened among the freshmen because of the appointment of Instructor L. Carl Sargeant in place of Professor T. Aaron Levy, who is on a Southern trip. At the meeting it developed that the reputation of Instructor Sargeant as a teacher is high in the estimate of his former students and that no cause for concern can be assigned unless somebody "started the story."

From a class of prospective college students in one of the large New York State high schools fifty-six distinct spellings of the word "isosceles" were obtained.

Between February 9, 1913, and February 8, 1914, inclusive, Buckeye Department of the University of Illinois, students purchased 29,413 pounds of milk and 1,159.01 pounds of 80 percent butter. To date (February, 1914) this is the heaviest total ever produced in one year by a college or Experiment Station cow in the United States. The Virginia Tech.
