THE ORIGINAL NON-LEAKABLE

The Freshman-Sophomore Wrestling

The meet promises to be most interesting for, although the Freshmen have the advantage in experience, the Sophomores make up their spirit. In every case the matches have been arranged so as to be close and offer the most attraction to the spectators. This meet will be the last to be held in this year and closes the wrestling season. The admission will be twenty-five cents.

The following matches have already been arranged and there is a possibility of more. In the 113-pound class, Levy ’16 vs. Bone ’17; in the 125-pound class, Doherty ’16 vs. Stubbins ’17; in the 135-pound class, Burdick ’16 vs. Bond ’17 or Mertz ’17; in the 145-pound class, Blakeney ’16 vs. Blakely ’17; in the 158-pound class, Levy ’16 vs. Bond ’17 or Mertz ’17; in the heavy-weight class, McSweeney ’16 vs. Bond ’17 or Mertz ’17.

The winners in each class will receive their class numerals and in case of two men winning in the same class elimination bouts will be necessary. The matches will be nine minutes long except in case of a draw when an extra three minutes will be required. A fall will count as three points and a decision as two.

Within the last few days the Sophomores have shown more interest in the sport. The teams are very evenly matched and Manager Moore is much encouraged.

Mr. H. J. Heinz, the "pickle man," has given a hundred thousand to the University of Pittsburgh. The following matches have already been arranged and there is a possibility of more. In the 113-pound class, Levy ’16 vs. Bone ’17; in the 125-pound class, Doherty ’16 vs. Stubbins ’17; in the 135-pound class, Burdick ’16 vs. Bond ’17 or Mertz ’17; in the 145-pound class, Blakeney ’16 vs. Blakely ’17; in the 158-pound class, Levy ’16 vs. Bond ’17 or Mertz ’17; in the heavy-weight class, McSweeney ’16 vs. Bond ’17 or Mertz ’17.

THE TECH MEN WELCOME IN SUFFRAGE PARADE

All invited To Help the Boston Women in Their Big Campaign for Votes.

The Massachusetts Women Suffrage Association, through one of the former editors of THE TECH, wishes to give general attention to the big Suffrage parade to be held in this city on the second day of May. In advance women are invited to swell the host of supporters taking part in the affair. The parade will begin at five o’clock and there will be held in Tremont Temple at seven, after which the festivities will be again pursued.

Anybody and everybody is to be intended in the line of march and any Tech man will be favored with a special permit upon application to the Parade Headquarters at No. 587 Boylston Street.

To quote from the communication sent to this paper: "The Floats and Costumes will make it beautiful, the Bands will make it gay, but Numbers alone will make it impressive. No special costume necessary. Everything free. Come on, come all!"

TECHNIQUE 1916

The competition for Art Editor of Technique 1916 closes today. All drawings must be handed in at the Tech Office by five o’clock. It is requested that each candidate sign his name to his drawing, covering the same with a piece of paper glued down at the edges.
