IN CHARGE OF THIS ISSUE.
W. A. Houser, '15; G. H. Stebbins, '17.

Convocation Day has come. This afternoon at 4:30 every student who has a spark of loyalty in his heart will be in Huntington Hall, singing the songs of his Alma Mater. We have come to the point where the deplorable condition of the past, of having these songs known only in a fragmentary way and by a small number of students, must give way to one more in harmony with the spirit of New Technology, one in which the songs of his Alma Mater. Members of the class relay teams are showing signs of activity the past few days with the spring meet but little more than a week off.

Well, one of Tech's good long distance men, has started in spring work in preparation for the spring meet. Will probably run with Cook in the two mile distance meets this spring.

The University of California has been nominated. Johnstone, Harvard's crack high jumper, has been declared eligible to compete in meets the rest of the year. Johnstone has been on probation the entire year.
