QUEEN OF THE MOVIES

Three performances it was very well received. Boston newspaper critics were favorably impressed by the acting of all the principals, and the Transcript went a little further by saying that the dancing and the chorus work were better than usual. The Springfield papers, well known for their frankness, gave "A Royal Johanne" a very favorable criticism.

Tonight the last performance will be given in the Malden Auditorium. A special car will be attached to a train which will leave North Station for Malden as quarter past five. At 11:40 a special electric car will run from in front of the Auditorium to Copley Square, Boston. The fare is small and many students who were unable to see the Show in Boston have arranged to go with the crowd tonight.

FRESHMEN GLEE

Pleasing Informality Characteristic of 1917 Dance.

The Freshmen Glee held last Friday evening at the Hotel Tuileries to witness an exhibition of the "maxixe" and as a result this dance even more successful than many that have been given in previous years.

As the opening feature two "Paul Jones" were danced and by this means the affair was made an enjoyable informal affair. Due to the pleasing informal character of the program, and the free and easy way the "maxixe" was danced it was encored twice, and proved to be one of the features of the evening. Professor McAdie of Harvard, who arranged to go with the crowd till he could hear the encore, was much pleased with the program. As a matter of fact, Professor McAdie, Mr. Whitney, Mr. O’Hara, the Four Freshmen, and all those present were pleased with the Freshmen Glee as usual.

The Freshmen Glee was given in the Colonial Theatre at Providence last night. As at the other performances last night, as they did at Northampton and at the Boston Opera House, and helped to make the Show even more successful than many that have been given in previous years. These features were the acting of F. Hastings Synthe, ’14, as Alice, the charming chorus girl, and the dancing of J. Paul Gardner, ’17, and Harold O. Whitney, ’17.

The Show has been praised each time it has been given. Boston newspaper critics were favorably impressed by the acting of all the principals, and the Transcript went a little further by saying that the dancing and the chorus work were better than usual. The Springfield papers, well known for their frankness, gave "A Royal Johanne" a very favorable criticism.

The world-wide appeal of "Bull" Durham is without a parallel in the annals of creature comforts. Millions of men of all nations and all classes find in "Bull" Durham hand-made cigarettes lifelong enjoyment and lasting satisfaction. Their fresh fragrance and mellow flavor are a revelation. Get "Bull" Durham, the world's greatest cigarette, and the greatest cigarette of them all.
