TECHNIQUE ELECTIONS

Two More Men Chosen for Board. One Position Now Unfilled.

By a mistake the name of Henry T. Freeman was omitted from the list of men elected last week to the Technique, 1915, board. Freeman was chosen to be Photograph Editor. He comes from Providence, and is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Simpson was chosen to be Corresponding Editor. He is a member of the Officers' Club and the Civil Engineering Society. Only one office, that of Grand Editor, now remains to be filled by the Electoral Committee, and it is probable that no one will be chosen for that position in a week or two.

FRESHMEN IMPROVING

Gloucester Game Uncovers Weak Places in Lineup.

The Gloucester name, although a defeat, served its purpose for the Freshmen by showing up the weak positions. In practice yesterday, Ken drill was shifted to catch, McQuaid to third, and Dell was played in short. This infield went through a short snappy practice and showed up extremely well. Gupan was placed in the field and greatly strengthened that department. It will be a stronger team that faces Brookline next Thursday than met defeat Monday but it will be up against one of the strongest schoolboy teams in the State. Last Saturday, Brookline played an excellent game against MIT and was only defeated by one point in the sixteenth inning. Arthur will probably be on the mound for the home team and either Simpson or Cady for the Freshmen.

INTERCOLLEGIATE PRIZE DRILL THIS AFTERNOON

Six High Schools Entered in Annual Event Run by M. I. T. Regiment.

This afternoon the two hours of freshman drill will be interrupted for about twenty minutes for the Interscholastic Prize Drill. This drill takes place annually at the South Armory under the auspices of the M. I. T. Regiment. There are at present six teams from the following High Schools: Gloucester, Lowell, Medford, New Bedford, Stoneham and Wakefield. Each team consists of three bases, drilling in three rounds. The number of men will be six in each round so that there will be eight men in the squad in the last round. There will be three prizes awarded, two individual and one team prize. The prizes are to be awarded according to the points made in the last round, the first man getting 8 points, the second 7, and so on down to one. The team prize goes to the team getting the largest number of points in the last round. The drilling will consist of the manual of arms, and the marching and facing. Sergeant Perry Schofield and a member of the Coast Artillery will act as judges.
