COMBINED MUSICAL CLUBS TO GIVE FINAL CONCERT
Will Be Held At Stoneham To-Night—Dancing to Follow The Concert.

The Combined Musical Clubs will give the final concert of the year at Stoneham tonight. It is to be held in the old armory and will be followed by a dance.

The men who are going out for supper are to take the 5.29 train from the North Station for Stoneham and will meet at the station there. They can obtain their railroad tickets at the upper office in the Union this noon from 1:30 to 2 p.m.

The men who are going out only for the concert are to take the 6.29 train from the North Station. After the concert they will be given their fare and can return to town any time they wish.

The following men have been arranged for:

The election of officers and the break-up banquet will be held next Saturday night. The arrangements will be announced later.

Dr. Georgiana Sweet of Melbourne University is at present delivering a series of talks on “Australian Universities” at present in the United States. She will be announced later.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editors of THE TECH:

It seems to the writer that it is rather hard on the M. I. T. Cadet Corps to designate their official title as the 126th Reserves. This was started by THE TECH in an article which was meant to be humorous and should have been taken with a grain of salt. The Boston Public Service Comm. will present, “The Railroad Situation.”

Problems of a Consulting Engineer, Mr. Geo. W. Anderson of Mass. Wesleyan will have a new song book.
