HOLY CROSS MEET

her own way it does not seem as though it would be much use for Holy Cross in any case to the New England unless she has one or two stars who can pick up a few points. The meet Saturday is not expected to be a runaway for either team, but the odds seem to favor Tech as the team showed up so well at Bowdoin.

Following is the list of entries for the match:

100 and 220 yd. dashes—Wilson, Wilkins, O'Hara, Loonos, Bbd, Casey, G. Reed.

440-yard—T. H. Guething, Pease, Thompson, Dean, Williams, Zim.

120-yd. hurdles—Huff, Foster, Sewell. 220-yd. hurdles—Huff, Foster, Sewell, A. Wood.

High Jump—Tossen, Hall, Sullivan, Gokev, Doon, Childs.

Broad Jump—Fox, C. Reed, Atkinson, Casey, Moran, Gokev, Doon, Sewell, G. Reid.

Pole vault—Lawrason, Knapp, W.

9:56; captain of next year's cross-country team, Tanenbaum, tomorrow evening at 6.15.

Mr. E. W. Rice, president of the General Electric Company, will be the guest of honor and will speak on his early experience as an electrical engineer. He was associated with the Thomson-Houston works at Lynn, when that industry was in its infancy. This was the time when a 100-kilowatt generator was looked upon as the sixth wonder of the world. Turbine generators are now being built in sets of 20,000 K. W. It is expected that Mr. Rice will have many interesting tales to tell about the olden days.

At the dinner the election of officers of the next year will be announced and the present president will formally turn over his office to Mr. E. W. Rice.
