The splendid attendance at the motion-picture talk yesterday is indicative of that widespread interest that has begun to make itself felt about the 'Stute. Our men seem to be waking up, and we hope that the amount of talking that has been done at New Haven.

The Columbia Jabber, Princeton Tiger, Harvard Lampoon and Yale Record will be allowed a full page in The Independent to dignify what the Independent calls the best humor in the country, undergraduate wit.

The University of California has sent personal letters to over 400 high school track managers on the Pacific Coast, urging them to participate in their annual interscholastic meet.

The State College of Washington has granted life passes to all athletic events on its home field to every letter man of the institution.

The students of Ohio State are making strenuous efforts to get the faculty to cease their objections to tardiness at the opening of a class or to dismiss the students at the end of the hour.

The Syracuse Daily Orange is threatened with a premature death at the end of the school year unless the student body insures united support. If this happens the Athletic Governing Board will probably start an independent athletic sheet.

A number of the universities of the middle west are holding their annual May Day celebrations. Historical pageants are being given and in almost every case the program includes an amateur circus on the campus.

Eighteen college track meets are scheduled for Saturday of this week. Among the most prominent of these is Harvard vs. Cornell at Ithaca, Dartmouth vs. Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, and the Yale vs. Princeton at New Haven.
