COMMUNICATION
To the Editor of THE TECH:
"It was a great surprise to me, on looking over a book of Tech songs, to find that very few of them are known to the student body. In fact there are only four, and two of those are alumni songs and two are athletic.
I did not know that there was a Tech "Alma Mater" song until I saw it in the book. The four songs mentioned are fine ones but not one of them is what you could call a real Tech song. "On Rogers' Steps" and "Take Me Back to Tech" are distinctly athletic, while "Dear Old M. I. T." and "Three Cheers for Tech" are both athletic. The "Stein Song," although written by a Tech man, is not really a Tech song as it contains no reference to Tech.
All other colleges have their "Alma Mater" songs and the students all know them, but I doubt if there are fifty men at Tech that know that we have one. A campaign should be started at the beginning of next year to learn the Alma Mater.
Yours truly,
WILLIAM JOHNSON, '17.
