Catholic Club Dines in Union

Fifty-eight Members Attend the First Monthly Meeting Of the Year.

The Catholic Club met at the Union at 6.15 last evening to hold the first meeting of the year. After a good dinner, President Blodgett introduced Dean Burton, who first commanded the club on its excellent work and then emphasized the fact that "The ability to do a thing that we don't want to do it," is- the accomplishment that we all should obtain.

The next speaker was Father Scanlan who advised the members not to fall into the error of thinking they know everything, but to consult older men as often as possible.

Mr. J. F. O'Neill, who is connected with the forging department of the Union, concluded the speaking, and then the members adjourned to sing songs and to become better acquainted.

Notice.

Mrs. Macaulay regrets very much that she will be unable to receive students on Sunday afternoon of this fall.
