... tone in restrained singing. Much credit for the performance is due to Mr. Bovi who handled the orchestra with judgment and ease.

The plot in brief is laid around the passionate love of Amelia—wife of his secretary—Renato, who has an affair with her. The conspirators surprise them, and theGovernor, who is in love with a veiled woman, takes care of it. Of course the Governor is killed by the man who killed her. The plot is complicated with the Governor's wife, Amelia, and Renato, who become involved in a love triangle.

Harvard was fortunate to get a tie for its football team.
