A Stein Song.

Give a rouse, then, in the Maytime,

For a life that knows no fear,

Turn night-time into day-time

With the sunlight of good cheer!

For it's always fair weather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a good song ringing clear;

Chorus:

For it's always fair weather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a good song ringing clear.

Oh, we're all frank and twenty

When the spring is in the air;

And we've faith and hope agleynt,

And we're life and love to spare;

And it's birds of a feather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a heart without a care;

Chorus:

And it's birds of a feather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a heart without a care.

For we know the world is glorious,

And the goal a golden thing,

When his children have their fling;

And life slips its tether

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

In the fellowship of spring;

Chorus:

And life slips its tether

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

In the fellowship of spring.

Chorus:

Dear Old M. I. T.

The sun with glowing crimson
Has ting'd the sky's dull gray;

The glory of the sunset
Uplifts our flag today;

While here beneath our colors,

With hearts that never yield,

Our boys are fighting onward,

Fighting onward 'cross the field.

Chorus:

Fighting, boys, we are cheering for you,

For we want you to win today;

Do your best, we are all behind you,

And you're wearing the Red and Gray.

Though the odds may be great against you,

Full of sturdy courage be;

And we'll raise a song of victory

For dear old M. I. T.

Before old Harvard's crimson,

Before the rows of Brown,

Our colors will not drown;

Though Amherst's white and purple
