Brown's work on Saturday shows him as a strong contender for individual honors in both N. E. I. C. A. A. and I. C. A. A. A. cross-country runs. He ran the last hundred yards as though finishing a quarter-mile.

Frank O'Han, owing to a death in his family, will be unable to run on Paddock Day. His loss will be a severe blow to the Sophomore relay projects.

Cornell has developed a new cross-country star in Windmable, the former Western distance runner, who took first place in the Harvard-Cornell run, defeating Hoffmire, the intercollegiate mile champion.

Cornell must have some team when Speidel, the intercollegiate mile champion cannot finish among the seven searing members.

Harvey Cohn has developed a strong hill and dale team at Colby, which promises to be Tech's most serious contender at the New England meet.

Bradley, the Freshman miler from Andover, is running in excellent form and looks like a good bet for first place in the freshman intercollegiate meet at Andover.
