HOW THE FIELD DAY CUSTOM ORIGINATED

Annual Event Substituted Over Decade Ago For Bloody Cane-Rush.

The first cane rush between the Freshmen and Sophomores classic occurred on November 15, 1906. The rush was much the same as in former years, the Freshmen being given possession of the cane, while the second year men attacked their formation with Fling wedges. The scrimmage lasted fifteen minutes and, as usual, with flying wedges. The. scrimmage while the Freshmen had only eleven.
At the bottom of the pile of men was found that the 1904 men had beneath the pile but still retained hiS consciousness. In some way Moore was thrown down by his upperclassmen and was limbless. He was thrown down joined the struggling lower-class men while the Freshmen had only eleven.

ADDENDUM

Walter Moore, '06.

In a class meeting a few days previous to the rush, Moore spoke briefly to his fellows, advising them not to stop the struggle when the check was fi red as signal and the rush. Following his own advice, he wrapped himself bodily around the end of the cane at the moment the shot was fired. At this point the struggle became more enthusiastic. New men joined in against the upperclassmen

Moore was thrown down
