FRESHMAN NOMINATION DUE TOMORROW

Elections To Be According To The Uniform Constitution Adopted.

Nominations for the office of the class of 1915 are due at the Cage tomorrow at 1:09 p.m. The list of candidates will be published in The Tech and ballots will be sent to members of the class the first of the next week.

All freshmen who have not paid their class dues can do so at the Cage or enclose the money with their ballot, otherwise, their vote will be worthless.

The constitution of the class of 1915 is as follows:

Article I.—Name.

Sec. 1.—This organization shall be known as the "Class of 1915 of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology."

Article II.—Membership.

Sec. 1.—All persons taking a majority of hours with this class shall be eligible for membership.

Sec. 2.—Any member of this class failing to pay his dues before the general election of officers shall forfeit his membership and his right to vote; and he shall be reinstated only on payment of the same.

Sec. 3.—Any member who shall after becoming a member of this class, take for any reason a majority of his hours in another class, shall thereby forfeit his membership in this class.

Article III.—Temporary Organization.

Sec. 1.—Previous to the election of the officers in the freshman year, the class shall be under the supervision of a Junior, who shall be termed the Temporary Chairman.

Sec. 2.—He shall be assisted by four or more Juniors, three to act as temporary managers of three Field Day teams, and one as temporary treasurer.

Sec. 3.—The temporary chairman, temporary treasurer, and the three temporary managers for the succeeding years shall be elected, from their respective classes, by the Executive Committee at the first meeting in May.

Sec. 4.—The temporary chairman, temporary treasurer, and the three temporary managers shall constitute the Institute Committee, and shall be responsible to that committee for the affairs of the freshman class.

Sec. 5.—The temporary chairman shall take the duties of the president of the class during his tenure of office.

Sec. 6.—The temporary managers shall, during the first two weeks of the school year, conduct competitions for the management of their respective teams.

Sec. 7.—The temporary treasurer shall assume the duties of the treasurer during his tenure of office.

Article IV.—Officers.

Sec. 1.—The officers of this class shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, two Directors, and the members of the executive committee, two representatives to the M.I.T. A., all of whom shall constitute a Board of Directors for the class. These officers shall serve until the next general election of officers by the class.

Article V.—Duties.

Sec. 1.—The President shall provide for and attend all meetings of the class and of the Board of Directors, and shall be a member of all committees, ex-officio.

Sec. 2.—The Vice-President shall assume the duties of the president in case of the latter's disability, absence, or resignation.

Sec. 3.—The Secretary and Treasurer shall perform the regular duties of their respective offices.

Sec. 4.—The Board of Directors shall have charge of the social and general affairs of the class, shall have sole power to make contracts and pay bills, and shall have full control of the disposition of class funds and properties. They shall specify the manner of appointing committees not provided for in this constitution, and may enact any measures deemed fit for the benefit of the class.

Sec. 5.—The Board of Directors shall meet once a month, or any other time that the president may convene it.

Article VI.—Dues.

Sec. 1.—The annual dues of the class shall be $1.50 and shall be due before the election of officers.

Sec. 2.—A two-thirds vote of the members present at a class meeting shall be necessary to levy an assessment.

Article VII.—Meetings.

Sec. 1.—Class meetings may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or by written request to the President signed by thirty (30) members of the class.

Sec. 2.—All notices of meetings shall be posted on regular bulletin boards assigned to the class, at least three days in advance; except that those to consider amendments shall be posted at least a week in advance.

Sec. 3.—In all meetings with the exception of those called to consider amendments those present shall constitute a quorum. In meetings called to consider amendments, one third of the class shall constitute a quorum.

Article VIII.—Method of Electing Freshman Officers.

Sec. 1.—Before the date of the annual Field Day the temporary chairman shall appoint three members of the class as a committee on elections. The members of this committee shall not be nominees for any class office.

Sec. 2.—Nominations to office shall be open the day following the annual Field Day and shall close at a definite hour on the eighth day after said Field Day. Each nomination, to be valid, must be signed by at least ten members of the class. In case of less than three (3) nominations to each office are received the committee shall nominate one person to make up this number. The name of no man whose name has not been paid shall be placed on the ballot.

Sec. 3.—The committee shall then send printed ballots to each member of the class to be filled out and returned. Seven days after the sending of these ballots the polls shall be closed, the committee shall count (Continued on Page Five)
