The unfortunate circumstance through which last Saturday's meet was lost is universally agreed to be no fault of the man directly concerned, who showed an exhibition of pluck such as is seldom seen nowadays. Misfortunes will happen, whether or no, and if one does his best under the circumstances, the victory is in his true sense.

While there is nothing to prevent a man from running for two separate offices in the same election as in the case of the present freshman nominations, it would seem to be rather poor policy. Personal advantage, in the concentration of votes, should induce the men concerned to withdraw one nomination or the other.

THE SMOKELESS SMOKING TOBACCO isn't a honorary degree. It takes VELVET, the best o' Kentucky's Burley, two years to get it.

In VELVET there's its aged-in-the-wood mellowness added to all the natural taste and fragrance of Kentucky's Burley de Luxe. 10c a tin and 5c metal-lined hogs.
